

GIFTS

Jensen Silver and Orrefors Glass head the list of our extensive display.

However, there are just thousands of pieces suitable for any gift occasions in a price range from 25c to $300.00.

It would take the space of this whole program to tell you of all the beautiful things we have. Won't you come in and see them? Always open — evenings too.

ACT I—The Black Mesa Bar-B-Q, a gas station and lunch room at a lonely cross-roads in the Eastern Arizona Desert. Late afternoon in Autumn.

ACT II—That evening.

Au Revoir But Not Goodbye!

Milton Stiefel and his company of Ivoryton Players take this opportunity—the last week of the 1937 season—to say “Thank you for your generous patronage during the ten week season of 1937. We believe you have been entertained by our presentations of such stage successes as ‘Boy Meets Girl,’ ‘The Children’s Hour,’ ‘Lysistrata,’ ‘The Queen’s Husband,’ ‘Idiot’s Delight’ and this week’s ‘Petrified Forest’ with guest star, Conrad Nagel. Some of us are returning to New York, some to Hollywood, to the stage or the radio. We will be back again in 1938 with the best productions available or ever to be seen in Summer Stock.”

So it’s Au Revoir but not Goodbye.

Milton Stiefel and Company.
